Note: Price printed on this PDF is valid until 01-03-2025 and is subject to change without notice due to Partner changes and currency fluctuations

Overview

A unique full day trip in the province of Argolis!

We leave Athens joining the coastal road until the first stop in the Corinth Canal, a unique technical achievement of the 19th century, connecting the Ionian with the Aegean Sea (short stop).

Then we drive to Mycenae, the citadel of one of the oldest prehistoric civilizations famous all around the world for the story of the Trojan War. This is the place from where the Greeks had set off for the expedition in Troy to get back beautiful Helene and where the golden mask of Agamemnon was found.

We will see the famous Lion's Gate, the monumental entrance, the Cyclopean Walls and the Treasury of Atreus, a monumental structure for the burial of the King. Before we depart for Nafplio, we will have a lunch break at Mycenae.

The next destination is Nafplio, Napoli di Romania, one of the most beautiful cities in Greece. We will stroll around the alleys of the first capital of Greece, we will admire the local architecture, the great venetian castle of Palamidi and the stronghold of Bourtzi and the cathedral of Saint George. After a short walking tour, you will have free time on your own to enjoy the city.

In the afternoon, we return to Athens full of colourful images and unique smells.
