Overview

This is part of a series of programs that immerse our visitors in unique experiences in a particular destination that possesses unspoiled nature, ancient cultures and large, spectacular open spaces, on a journey that reaches the depths of the soul, “away from the crowds”.

Trip Highlights

Uyuni-Jirria-Hedionda Lagoon-Hito Cajon

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01

Day 01: Arrive Uyuni

Arrival transfer in Uyuni and visit to the train cemetery. Continue to Colchani to visit the native salt production factory. Visit to the “Incahuasi Island”, an oasis with formations of algae and fossils. It is covered by thousands of giant cacti. The 360-degree landscape of the Salar -extending to the horizon- makes it an ideal place for "photo hunters". Dinner and accommodation at the Luna Salada Hotel built entirely of Salt - Standard Room.

Day 02: Uyuni / Jirira – North part of Salt Lake Uyuni

Early in the morning, visit the “Cueva de Chiquini” or the small town of “Tahua”, stroll through the town and walk to the “Cueva de las Momias de Coquesa”. Lunch with our Haute Cuisine Camper -if possible, aside by a reflecting pool-. Immerse yourself again in the landscape on the shores of the “Thunupa” volcano, where your Deluxe Airstream Camper will already be prepared for you. The Bolivian Andes offer dazzling landscapes that can hardly be matched. Be amazed by the colours of the Uyuni sky, mixed with the white desert, while enjoying a cocktail at sunset. Dinner in our special Sky-lounge Explorer Camper and enjoy a unique opportunity to observe the stars while learning about the Andean Cosmo vision. Accommodation in our Deluxe Airstream Camper.

Meal: Breakfast, lunch and Dinner

Day 03: Jirria / Hedionda Lagoon

Tour through the “Ramaditas” “Honda”, “Chiarcota” and “Kañapa” Lagoons. Box lunch en route. Arrival in the afternoon at the “Laguna Hedionda”, named for the high sulphur content in the water. Enjoy the Flamingos that walk freely near their Dome. Dinner and accommodation in your exclusive Dome.

Meal: Breakfast, lunch and Dinner

Day 04: Hedionda Lagoon / Hito Cajon – Border

Continue in your 4x4, through unique landscapes in the Avaroa National Reserve, to the enormous Laguna Colorada (4278 m.a.s.l.). Laguna Colorada is inhabited by huge flocks of 3 species of Flamencos. Continue to the “Sol de Mañana” Geysers, fumaroles and volcanic craters with 24 hours of activity at 4,900 m.a.s.l. Visit the "Green Lagoon", similar to a giant emerald and impressive view of the Licancabur Volcano, at 5,865 m.a.s.l. Enjoy the Dalí Desert. In the afternoon change of jeeps and crew at Hito Cajón (Bolivia-Chile border) to continue to Chile.

Note

PLEASE NOTE:

During raining season, usually from December to March, the Salt Flats, as well as the Red & Green Lagoon can become flooded any moment and it won't be possible to visit some attractions, such as Incawasi and some others, in order to preserve passenger's safety. Also, the moving of the Campers on the Salt Lake cannot be guaranteed during that time. Om addition, we warn our visitors that roads at the Salt Lake are not paved and during raining season, the journeys can take much longer.

Please note that GGTS cannot be responsible of any event or circumstance beyond the reasonable. In case reasons of force majeure, such as adverse weather conditions, blockades, or strikes which will enforce a change of route, we will have to charge an additional cost, therefore we kindly ask that passengers be in title of a proper insurance to cover these costs. We would deliver the relevant letter, explaining the reasons why visitors had to pay this additional cost.
