After your free time, we will take you to Andria for lunch and wine tasting in a typical masseria (or large farm). On our way back to Bari, we'll make a stop at the Castel del Monte, the most amazing castle built by Frederick II. It is protected as a World Heritage Site. Day 04: Bari · Albero Bello · Matera · Bari

After breakfast, Albero Bello is on the list, the "città dei Trulli", also protected as a World Heritage Site. Trulli are dry stone huts with a conical roof originally built for storage purposes. They were also permanent dwellings and are called casedde by locals (or little houses). Albero Bello is a gem, a true fairy tale place in the heart of Puglia.

We will continue to Basilicata, a border region. Welcome to Matera, its capital, "la città dei Sassi" (literally the city of the stones), Italy's own version of Cappadocia in the south of Italy. European Capital of Culture 2019, Matera is a UNESCO Heritage site. Take your time to admire the Sassi from different perspectives and overlooks. These cave dwellings inhabited since the Palaeolithic period make for the monumental historical centre and are connected by a maze of quaint little alleys, which will make you feel like you are catapulted in a real-life nativity scene. We'll visit the historical centre and enjoy the views from different overlooks. Return to Bari. Overnight there.

Day 05Day 05: Bari • Polignano a mare • Ostuni • Lecce

Polignano was built on the peak of a cliff, and therefore its coastline is characterized by coves, small bays and inlets. Our next stop will be Ostuni, the "Città Bianca" (or white city), another true gem 74 kilometres (46 miles) south of Bari located on the summit of a hill. It was built by the Normans and has city walls with four gates (remains of them can be seen). The region is a producer of top-quality olive oil and wine. We will have time to go around the historical centre, eat typical delicacies, shop for food or souvenirs or simply get lost in the old medieval streets. Transfer to Lecce. Overnight in Lecce.
